"MAKING IT GOOD FOR SOCIETY"

Organiser: Charlotte Hughes 07798724413

Speaker: Joanna Wake, from RAW Digital Training

2017 Women in IT; Best use of Innovation in IT

Joanna Wake is a multi-award winning entrepreneur in the digital skills arena. She heads up RAW Digital Training, a small company which trains businesses, organisations and industry talent in the vital digital skills that our economy needs, and features in the prestigious UK Digital Leaders 100 list 2016 and 2017.

Joanna has trained and created digital skills courses, for thousands of businesses, from every sector, and is highly skilled in strategic marketing. She was recently highly commended for 'Innovator of the Year' at the world's biggest tech awards for women, the 2017 Women in IT Awards, and won 'Best use of Innovation' at the 2016 WIN Awards. She has big passions for Teesside, digital employment, and women in tech.
