Teesside & District Branch

AGM and Equality and Diversity in the workplace

Speaker: Theresa Carling of Tilly Bailey & Irvine LLP

Theresa is an Associate Solicitor who has acted for organisations of all sizes and across all sectors from small owner-managed businesses through to large PLCs, local authorities, NHS Trusts, education establishments and charities over the last 16 years.

She regularly:

- Advises on employment aspects of restructures and TUPE transfers in organisations including academy conversions;
- Prepares contractual documentation from director level to shop floor, as well as giving specific HR advice and advising generally on strategy helping organisations safely part company with employees where necessary;
- Delivers fast, 'hands on' advice across the full range of HR and employment law issues with a heavy focus on commercial practicality (meaning I can foresee business impact.)
- Advises senior executives in relation to their exits.
- Plays an active role in the Tees Valley business community.
